The opportunity

In July 2021, fully vaccinated travellers were able to visit Jersey with no isolation requirement. Travellers who weren't fully vaccinated were only required to take a free PCR test on arrival, with minimal isolation. To support the updated travel policy Visit Jersey deployed activity across all channels, sharing the message that Jersey was open to travel.

Trade activation

A press release was distributed to key travel media titles following the announcement advising of the travel policy updates. This generated coverage in the following titles:

- Travel Bulletin Online
- TTG Online
- Travel Weekly Online
- Travel Mole
- Justabouttravel.net

The Visit Jersey Trade team facilitated the second in a series of webinars giving trade representatives the opportunity to speak with the Visit Jersey team and ask any questions they had about the updates. This gave our travel trade industry partners the knowledge they needed to sell Jersey.

Consumer activity

Supporting activity

Visit Jersey distributed a travel alert to consumer PR titles on the Government's updated Safer Travel Policy, securing two pieces of coverage in The Independent (d.u.u 436,046) and in The Sunday Times (circ. 647,622).

Both pieces included all key information about the new Safer Travel Policy, including no isolation for fully vaccinated arrivals and the relaxed rules for unvaccinated travellers or those with an incomplete vaccination record.

Owned channels

Updates to the travel policy were made to jersey.com. We continued to share the message on our social channels, engaging with our social communities, creating conversations and amplifying the message that Jersey is open to travel and ready to welcome visitors.

PPC activity

Supporting PPC activity focused on key search terms 'travel restrictions jersey' and 'can I go to Jersey' and continued to target 'last minute holidays'.
