Stay

Seymour Hotels of Jersey

Seymour Hotels is the largest and longest established hotel group in Jersey. Founded in 1919, it is still proudly owned and managed by the Seymour family today. Choose from three outstanding hotels - the Pomme d'Or Hotel, the Greenhills Country House Hotel and the Merton Hotel, as well as our stylish self-catering accommodation.

The Atlantic Hotel

Ideally located within proximity to La Moye, Les Mielles and Les Ormes, The Atlantic Hotel one of Jersey's finest luxury hotels which combines breath-taking ocean views with an award-winning restaurant, Ocean. The Atlantic Hotel is situated on one of the most stunning sites in the Channel Islands with views across La Moye Golf Course.

The Highlands Hotel

The Highlands Hotel is in one of Jersey's finest locations for breath-taking views. The famous La Corbiere lighthouse with unspoilt coves and bays is just a short walk away. The hotel is quiet, peaceful and close to the clean, golden, sandy beach of St Ouen's bay. The hotel benefits from a south-facing sun terrace for al fresco dining, a bar and sun lounge with views over a private bay and a heated swimming pool for a relaxing swim.

Gourmet Discoveries

Seafood tastes better when you can see the sea. It's something Paul Dufty, owner of Sumas restaurant in Gorey with its backdrop of Mont Orgueil Castle and sea views knows only too well. In Jersey it's all about provenance, and with produce grown in the island, and fresh fish and seafood caught on the tide, you can count our food miles on one hand.

There's something really special at Sumas about eating oysters in the fresh salt air and being able to see the oyster beds where they came from. With 2 AA Rosettes in the Michelin Guide, don't just take our word for it. Ocean Restaurant combines luxury dining at its best with stunning views across the gardens to St Ouen's Bay while the latest development in the hotel's culinary offering, The Tasting Room, provides an exceptional gastronomic experience by any standard.

Situated on the west coast of Jersey in the Channel Islands, Corbiere Phare Restaurant & Bar offers you unequalled views, accompanied by superb à la Carte Dining. Corbiere Lighthouse dominates a panoramic view of the Atlantic Ocean.

Unique Experiences

Shore to Chef

Ever wondered how your food make it to your plate? On Shore to Chef experience, learn about local ingredients, pick it, taste it and bag. Lead by Kazz Padidar, local adventure guide and forager, you will discover sustainable foraging, bushcraft and survival skills. Kazz supplies Michelin-Starred and seasonally conscious local restaurants with mushrooms, plants, seaweeds and shellfish. The Grand Jersey's head chef awaits your arrival and invites you to sample intimate dining at Tassilli, the 3AA Rosette acclaimed restaurant. Ideal for a party of us to 20 guests.

Other worldly islands

Home to one of the largest tidal ranges in the world, explore Jersey's archipelago to discover a submerged coastal landscape of reefs and islands, revealed at low tide. Walk, wander and swim around this unique habitat before it returns to sea bed. Jersey's archipelago is easy to get to – local adventure companies Island Rib Voyages and Jersey Seafaris both take visitors out to the area in fast RIBs with a full schedule of tours to choose from. It's a unique area, as Jersey Seafaris owner Richard Stevens explains: 'Every time I'm here I see something different, and I love seeing visitors' reactions to it. Without the tide, this area just wouldn't exist. It's a unique part of Jersey's heritage'.

Events

Jersey is an events destination like no other, small on size but big on personality. From local farmer's markets to vibrant music festivals, outdoor film screenings to sporting challenges, there's so much going on in Jersey. With over 50 events taking place throughout the calendar, why not plan a golf trip around one of our annual events.
