

Jersey Events. 2022 Dates

From cultural celebrations, spectacular sporting events, vibrant music and arts festivals, there's so much going on in our little island... Here's a snapshot of events coming up in 2022.

Hospice 2 Hospice Half Marathon

Sunday 20 March

Beau Pre Fundraising Shop in St. Ouen

Run wild out to the west of the island in the Hospice 2 Hospice Half Marathon. This 13.1 mile course runs throughout the country lanes of St. Ouen, St. Mary and St. John, starting at the Beau Pre Fundraising Shop all the way to Jersey Hospice Care on Mont Cochon. Multiple prizes are up for grabs as well as various categories to sign up, including a two-person relay. The Hospice 2 Hospice half marathon is a chance to explore the island all while raising money for a charitable cause.

Liberation Day

Monday 09 May

The 9th May is Liberation Day in Jersey, marking the end of the Second World War for Jersey and its inhabitants. The day is celebrated year after year with bands, parades, services, singing and dancing. Colourful re-enactments are always popular providing a vivid insight into what happened over 70 years ago. Details of events taking place on the day are yet to be announced.

13th Parish Festival of Film & Music

Thursday 12 May - Sunday 15 April
St. Helier, Jersey

After a successful first festival in 2019, the second rendition of the 13th Parish is back in May 2022 - bringing you an exciting mix of new international short films, documentaries, works of local and regional interest. Take part in practical activities, talks, workshops and much more. A world class independent film festival featuring short films, features, animations, and documentaries from around the globe as well as showcasing home-grown talent from the Channel Islands. This will be our second event after a successful launch in 2019 which saw award-winning films from Portugal, Ireland, Sweden, France and Jersey being screened.
