

The 'Grammers' Guide to Jersey.

If it's not on Instagram, it didn't happen, so we've done some of the hard work for you and pinpointed the best places to snap a photo to share and be the envy of your friends, family and colleagues.

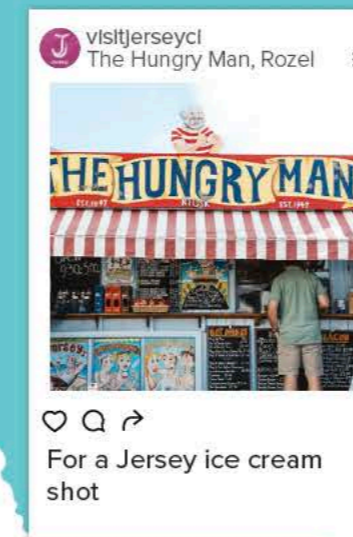

For a little more inspiration, we've included some thoughts from local ambassadors.

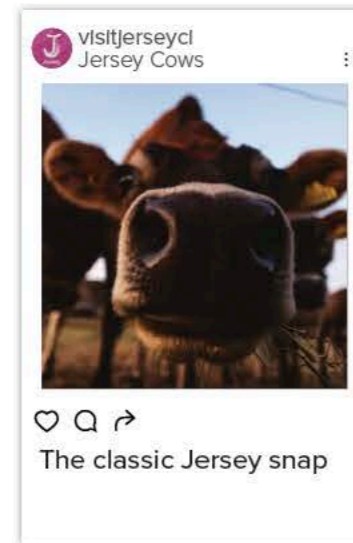

Grève de Lecq

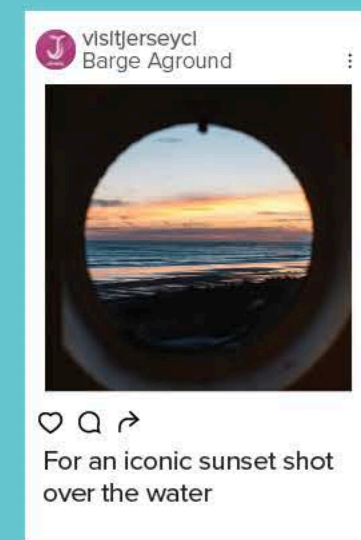

Bouley Bay

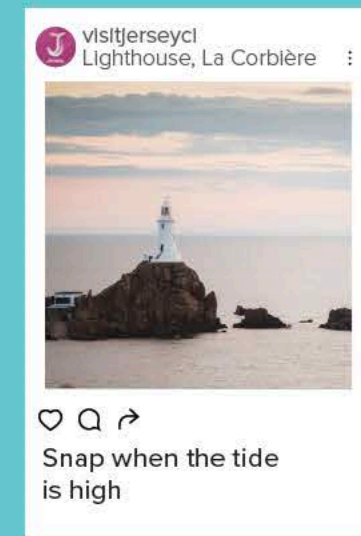

Rozel

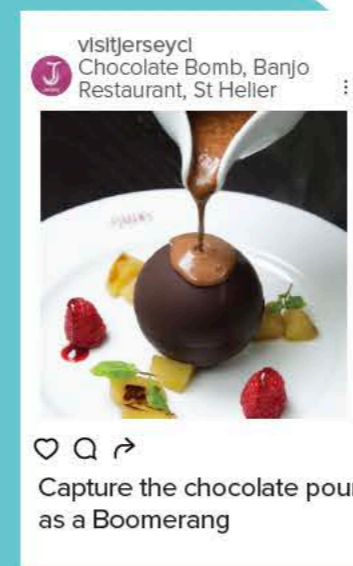

#theislandbreak

St. Ouen's Bay

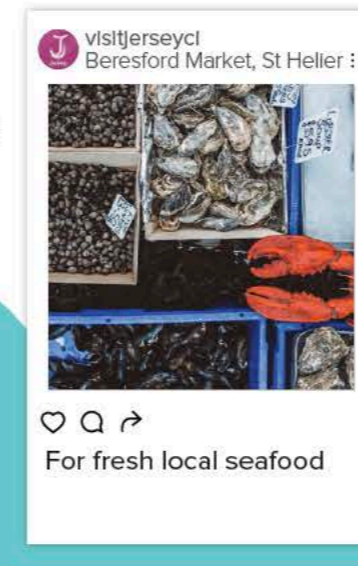

St. Brelade's Bay

St. Aubin

St. Helier

Green Island

Gorey

"I'd like to think that it doesn't matter who you are – if you come to St Aubin and the deli during your Jersey holiday you will feel welcomed. For visitors, it's a way to just be one of us and slip in our village life."

Sophie,
Deli Owner,
La Belle Gourmande

"Sorel Point, Mourier Valley, Devil's Hole, Greve de Lecq - Jersey's north coast is a unique landscape with very rare natural habitats. I never tire of seeing it at sunrise. It's a magical experience where you can truly appreciate its wild beauty."

Aaron,
The North Coast Shepherd

"It's amazing to have these beautiful locations to yourself - with the reward of a view of our golden bays in the distance, and the quiet sound of the waves crashing, and seabirds with the occasional visit of dolphins or seals."

Eleanor,
Rock Climber

"I've worked in the market for years. Everything follows the seasons - so it's constantly changing here. It's always a pleasure to deal with passionate restaurateurs that are at the cutting edge of food production."

Bill,
Market Trader

To find out more about their stories please visit www.jersey.com/ambassadors

Jersey is a small island, but packed with things to see and do. Here are just some activity ideas for your island break, and if you don't get through them all this time, we'd be happy to help you tick them all off on another trip soon!

- Visit St. Brelade's Bay, voted one of the best beaches in the UK in TripAdvisor's Travellers' Choice Awards
- Dine at one of the three on island Michelin Star Restaurants
- Enjoy a seafood barbeque at a German WWII bunker overlooking St. Ouen's Bay at Faulkner Fisheries

- Unwind at a luxury spa experience
- Explore one of the iconic Jersey Heritage sites
- Take a bike ride along one of the many cycle friendly green lanes

- Eat fresh seasonal Jersey Royal new potatoes
- Catch a wave during a surfing lesson at St. Ouen's Bay
- Experience a bioluminescence walk to Seymour Tower at night!